All Politics is Local, and Other Rules of the Game Tip O'Neill, Gary Hymel, 1994 Tip O'Neill member of the U S Congress for 40 years and Speaker of the House for 10 years was an American institution known and loved across the country In All Politics Is Local he shares his secrets Continuing in the tradition of the bestselling Man of the House O'Neill's inimitable stories and irresistible style show how politics really work Man of the House Tip O'Neill, 1987 Great Games, Local Rules Alexander Cooley, 2012 The struggle between Russia and Great Britain over Central Asia in the nineteenth century was the original great game But in the past quarter century a new great game has emerged pitting America against a newly aggressive Russia and a resource hungry China all struggling for influence over one of the volatile areas in the world the long border region stretching from Iran through Pakistan to Kashmir In Great Games Local Rules Alexander Cooley one of America's most respected Central Asia experts explores the dynamics of the new competition over the region since 9 11 All three great powers are pursuing important goals basing rights for the US access to natural resources for the Chinese and increased political influence for the Russians But Central Asian governments have proven themselves powerful forces in their own right establishing local rules that serve to fend off foreign involvement enrich themselves and reinforce their sovereign authority Cooley's careful and surprising explanation of how small states interact with great powers in this vital region greatly advances our understanding of how world politics actually works in this contemporary era Games without Rules Tamim Ansary, 2014-03-04 By the author of Destiny Disrupted an enlightening accessible history of modern Afghanistan from the Afghan point of view showing how Great Power conflicts have interrupted its ongoing internal struggle to take form as a nation Winner-Take-All Politics Jacob S. Hacker, Paul Pierson, 2010 In this groundbreaking book on one of the world's greatest economic crises Hacker and Pierson explain why the richest of the rich are getting richer while the rest of the world isn't All Politics Is Global Daniel W. Drezner, 2008-08-18 Has globalization diluted the power of national governments to regulate their own economies Are international governmental and nongovernmental organizations weakening the hold of nation states on global regulatory agendas Many observers think so But in All Politics Is Global Daniel Drezner argues that this view is wrong Despite globalization states especially the great powers still dominate international regulatory regimes and the regulatory goals of states are driven by their domestic interests As Drezner shows state size still matters The great powers the United States and the European Union remain the key players in writing global regulations and their power is due to the size of their internal economic markets If they agree there will be effective global governance If they don't agree governance will be fragmented or ineffective And paradoxically the most powerful sources of great power preferences are the least globalized elements of their economies Testing this revisionist model of global regulatory governance on an unusually wide variety of cases including the Internet finance genetically modified organisms and intellectual property rights Drezner shows why there is such disparity in the strength of international regulations

The Politics Industry Katherine M. Gehl, Michael E. Porter, 2020-06-23 Leading political innovation activist Katherine Gehl and world renowned business strategist Michael Porter bring fresh perspective deep scholarship and a real and actionable solution Final Five Voting to the grand challenge of our broken political and democratic system Final Five Voting has already been adopted in Alaska and is being advanced in states across the country The truth is the American political system is working exactly how it is designed to work and it isn't designed or optimized today to work for us for ordinary citizens Most people believe that our political system is a public institution with high minded principles and impartial rules derived from the Constitution In reality it has become a private industry dominated by a textbook duopoly the Democrats and the Republicans and plagued and perverted by unhealthy competition between the players Tragically it has therefore become incapable of delivering solutions to America's key economic and social challenges In fact there is virtually no connection between our political leaders solving problems and getting reelected In The Politics Industry business leader and path breaking political innovator Katherine Gehl and world renowned business strategist Michael Porter take a radical new approach They ingeniously apply the tools of business analysis and Porter's distinctive Five Forces framework to show how the political system functions just as every other competitive industry does and how the duopoly has led to the devastating outcomes we see today Using this competition lens Gehl and Porter identify the most powerful lever for change a strategy comprised of a clear set of choices in two key areas how our elections work and how we make our laws Their bracing assessment and practical recommendations cut through the endless debate about various proposed fixes such as term limits and campaign finance reform The result true political innovation The Politics Industry is an original and completely nonpartisan guide that will open your eyes to the true dynamics and profound challenges of the American political system and provide real solutions for reshaping the system for the benefit of all THE INSTITUTE FOR POLITICAL INNOVATION The authors will donate all royalties from the sale of this book to the Institute for Political Innovation

How the Nations Rage Jonathan Leeman,2018-04-03 How can the church move forward in unity amid such political strife and cultural contention As Christians we ve felt pushed to the outskirts of national public life yet even within our congregations we are divided about how to respond Some want to strengthen the evangelical voting bloc Others focus on social justice causes and still others would abandon the public square altogether What do we do when brothers and sisters in Christ sit next to each other in the pews but feel divided and angry Is there a way forward In How the Nations Rage political theology scholar and pastor Jonathan Leeman challenges Christians from across the spectrum to hit the restart button by shifting our focus from redeeming the nation to living as a nation already redeemed rejecting the false allure of building heaven on earth while living faithfully as citizens of a heavenly kingdom letting Jesus teaching shape our public engagement as we love our neighbors and seek justice When we identify with Christ more than a political party or social grouping we can return to the church s unchanging political task to become the salt and light Jesus calls us to be and offer the hope of his kingdom to the nations

Eitan Hersh, 2020-01-14 A brilliant condemnation of political hobbyism treating politics like entertainment and a call to arms for well meaning well informed citizens who consume political news but do not take political action Who is to blame for our broken politics The uncomfortable answer to this question starts with ordinary citizens with good intentions We vote sometimes and occasionally sign a petition or attend a rally But we mainly engage by consuming politics as if it s a sport or a hobby We soak in daily political gossip and eat up statistics about who s up and who s down We tweet and post and share We crave outrage The hours we spend on politics are used mainly as pastime Instead we should be spending the same number of hours building political organizations implementing a long term vision for our city or town and getting to know our neighbors whose votes will be needed for solving hard problems We could be accumulating power so that when there are opportunities to make a difference to lobby to advocate to mobilize we will be ready But most of us who are spending time on politics today are focused inward choosing roles and activities designed for our short term pleasure We are repelled by the slow and steady activities that characterize service to the common good In Politics Is for Power pioneering and brilliant data analyst Eitan

Hersh shows us a way toward more effective political participation Aided by political theory history cutting edge social science as well as remarkable stories of ordinary citizens who got off their couches and took political power seriously this book shows us how to channel our energy away from political hobbyism and toward empowering our values The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinothan Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning Principles of Politics Applicable to All Governments Benjamin
